

FRENCH COMPLICATIONS.

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

The Rouvier Cabinet Threatened With Death—A Feeling of Uneasiness Prevailing in Paris—How Madame Ferry Received the News—Foreign News.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—The far from cheerful information giving by Aubertin, the assassin of M. Ferry, that his accomplices are pledged to kill the several members of the Rouvier cabinet before next Tuesday, will doubtless have the effect to dull the anticipatory interest of those gentlemen in the approaching holiday season, while the amateur assassin's threat to disclose the names of the men into whose hands the wholesale killing has been entrusted in case of their neglect or failure must not only increase the trepidation of the intended victims, but render life miserable to those of the gang whose sanguinary ardor may have been cooled by the experience of Aubertin, mature reflection and careful estimation of the risks involved.

To increase the volume of the sea of misery into which these representatives of two opposing elements in current French politics have thus been plunged, may be added the tributary flood of apprehension dashing across the minds of other French statesmen and politicians that they, too, are marked men in the eyes of assassins, especially delegated to swell the population of other realms at the expense of France and every hour augments the number of those whose hearts have been swept by this time.

The failure of M. Fallieres to form a ministry and the subsequent ill success of Senator Tirard in accomplishing that end have had the effect to extend the scope of the prevalent feeling of easiness and guarded though they be in the expression of their opinions, many men prominent in political life find it difficult to conceal their fears that occurrences of extreme gravity and affecting the integrity of the republic are imminent, and to be averted only by the formation of a government almost immediately.

Whether M. Floquet will consent to stake his reputation upon the chance of constructing a cabinet, or in event of his doing so will be successful on one can, of course, accurately foretell, but the general opinion is that he is no more likely to succeed than any of the gentlemen who have abandoned the task. M. Carnot is known to cherish a most uncompromising aversion to Gen. Boulanger, and would undoubtedly resign rather than to accept him as minister under his presidency; yet a French gentleman in close relations with the French embassy here, offered to wager $50 at a private club last evening that the predecessor of Gen. Farron would also be his successor in the war office. Precisely how this is to be brought about is not just now apparent, but strange things are always happening in France.

How Mrs. Ferry Received the News.

PARIS, Dec. 13.—M. Ferry was appalled on hearing what a narrow escape he had. If the pistol had been held straighter every ball would have carried death. No one but the assassin kept cool. M. Floquet rushed informally from the chair to offer a bedroom in the Palais Bourbon and the whole chamber flooded after him. M. Ferry coming to asked to be taken home and said: "Break the news to my wife by telling some white lie." She, as a matter of fact, was out shopping when he arrived and nearly died on hearing the newsboys' howl out "attempted assassination of Ferry," the word "attempted" escaping her ear. Naturally her first notion was that M. Ferry had fallen, as did Cesar, beneath the daggers of envious radicals. She stood as if cataleptic and then said to a passer-by, "I am Madame Ferry; call a carriage."

The American Dynamiters.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—Cullinan and Harkins, the alleged American dynamiters, were conveyed to the Bow street court to-day by armed guards. The crown counsel denied that any obstacles had been placed in the way of the prisoners conferring with their solicitors.

Will Make Another Attempt.

PARIS, Dec. 13.—The Paris says that Senator Tirard appears to be yielding to President Carnot's desires, and will make another attempt to form a cabinet.

Bail Declined.

DUBLIN, Dec. 13.—Judge Wicklow declined bail for the two Murphys, who were on trial at Ennis for the murder of Constable Whelan, and concerning whom the jury disagreed.

A PRESENT FOR THE POPE.

Splendid Offering From the Baltimore Redemptionist Fathers.

BAITMORE, Md., Dec. 13.—The magnificent work of art subscribed for by the Redemptionist fathers, of the province of Baltimore, for presentation to the pope upon the occasion of his golden jubilee, which will be celebrated December 31 next, was shipped from here to Rome this morning. It is a combination writing desk and book case, showing a pictorial history, carved in wood, of the Catholic church in America. The woods used in its construction include boxwood, sycamore, cedar, maple, mahogany and walnut, and of the buttressed tree and oak. The article is eleven feet high and four feet wide, and is embellished with carved representations of the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Alphonsus, St. Joachim, St. Leo, St. Thomas and Pope Leo. On the left wall of the base, or writing desk, is a representation of the landing of Columbus.

He is shown, surrounded by his followers, planting the cross in the newly found country. The Pinta Nina and Santa Maria are in the distance on the ocean, and a boat filled with the discoverers is being pulled toward the shore. In the clouds appears the Virgin Mary, surrounded by angels, bestowing her blessing upon the safely harbored voyagers. The left wall is adorned with a carving representative of the landing of the first Redemptionists of New York, who came from the old world 340 years after Columbus. Beneath the carved figure of Pope Leo, who is represented as wearing his full pontifical robes are the coats of arms of the German empire and Spain, symbolizing the important part borne by the pope as mediator between these two countries in the happy settlement of the dispute concerning the Caroline islands.

Killed on the Track.

CAMDEN, N. J., Dec. 13.—George Bartholomew, employed in a Philadelphia detective agency and living in Collingwood on the Camden & Atlantic railroad, while walking along the track at 4 a. m. to-day, stumbled over two dead bodies. They were those of Alfred Stratton, aged seventeen years, and Alonzo Hudson, aged twenty-six, of Camden. Both are supposed to have been killed by a freight train bound for Atlantic City. Stratton was blind. A third person was killed this morning, his name was George Gibbon. He was an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad, and was run over and instantly killed near Pavia station.

ELOPED WITH AN INDIAN.

A Redskin Pains Himself Off as a Spaniard and Weds a Preacher's Daughter.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Dec. 13.—Excitement has been caused here by the elopement of David Littlejohn, a full-blooded Tuscarora Indian, with Pauline, daughter of Rev. Gustav Schwitzer, of Swarnsville, Erie county. The Indian has been around here a good deal, and was quite a fop. The girl, who is only seventeen, is good looking, a blonde, with dark eyes, and has been well educated, though she has never been away from home. She met Littlejohn last summer on Goat Island, having come here with an excursion. The Indian scraped an acquaintance and assisted her to find her friends. He told her he was a Spaniard, and was a guest at the Prospect house. He visited her at Swarnsville, made love to her on the sly, and planned an elopement.

Last week she left her home and met him at Tonawanda, and they went to Hamilton and were married. A brother, aged twenty, tracked them here, but lost the trail and went home. The Indian and his white bride returned to Swarnsville to be forgiven. The relations of the girl would not listen, and the stalwart Swarnsvillians turned in and beat the redskin within an inch of his life. The girl refused to give him up, and even though she knew she had been duped, still insisted that she loved him.

Plans were made to give Littlejohn a coat of tar and feathers, but he fled the settlement, and his whereabouts are unknown. He took the marriage certificate with him. The parents believe the girl was imposed on by a mock marriage, and if the full facts had been known the Indian would likely have been scalped. The clergyman's son was here Sunday looking for Littlejohn, and threatening to have him arrested for abduction and seduction. The girl was locked in her room on account of her threats to follow her dusky husband.

Littlejohn made all the money he had by raising fighting roosters and disposing of them to Toronto sports. Like most of his race he was shiftless and fond of fire water.

Burglar Killed.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Dec. 13.—Sunday morning burglars attempted to break into Olmsted & Storm's bank, at Galesburg, this county. George Cory, who sleeps overhead, was awakened, and seizing his revolver, rushed down stairs in his night clothes and opened fire on the burglars, fatally wounding one of them named Lawrence, who said the names of his accomplices were Phillips and Brown.

Hanging to a Tree.

HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 13.—Henry Lovy, who shot Mrs. Guerdat at Torrington on Friday and escaped, was found hanging dead to a tree in the woods near his house. He had committed suicide. Mrs. Guerdat is recovering.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Quotations of the Money, Stock, Produce and Cattle Market for Dec. 13.

New York—Money 5 per cent. Exchange steady. Governments steady. Currency sixes, 119 1/4 bid; four coupons, 125; four-and-a-half, 107 1/4 bid.

The stock market this morning opened dull at unchanged prices. The bears, however, soon began to sell the list. They especially hammered the coal stocks, and prices under their lead declined 1/2 to 3/4 per cent. by 11 o'clock. In the hour to noon prices recovered fractionally, and at the present writing the market is dull but steady. Reading is the strongest stock.
